The Italian Poets.

Italy, always beautiful, has never ceased to be great. Whether Etruscan, Roman, papal, or German, her intellect has constantly exercised an influence unequalled by that of any other land. As Etruscan, she became the art-mistress of the West; as Roman, she civilized Europe, under Charlemagne and the German popes, she revived the slumbering embers of learning; and in the moment of her greatest weakness, at the close of the middle ages, her republican poets and thinkers led the way in that triumphant mental revival that has made Europe instructress of the world. The free genius of Dante aimed its bolts from heaven at the temporal and spiritual tyranny of the papacy; the milder muse of Petrarch reproached the barbaric vices of feudalism; the poets of Italy chanted to the nations their songs of freedom and of faith; and England, France and Germany slowly followed in the path of progress. Savage barons and cruel kings learned politeness, if not humanity, in the busy streets of Venice or of Florence; English poets and French versifiers sat humbly at the feet of their Florentine models; and at length, when Italian genius had sunk into decay under the tyranny of popes and princes, its liberal ideas were revived in the fens of Holland and the shops of London, and Milton, the Dante of Puritanism, renewed and surpassed the inspired song of his master and the austere republicanism of Petrarch.—Harper's May.

The Balloon at the Paris Exposition.

The gamins of Paris are looking forward in great glee to the balloon ascents that are to form one of the features of the exposition. The balloon, which will be the largest in the world, is now in course of manufacture at the Tuilleries, while 160 sewing girls are engaged in putting the pieces of which it is made together. The car will hold fifty passengers and has a restaurant and bar attached. A wire rope, some 800 feet in length, will be fastened in the bottom of the car and operated by a windlass, so that the balloon with its living cargo will always be under control—provided the rope does not break. It will take about four minutes, under favorable circumstances, for the balloon to ascend until the end of the rope is reached, and about eight to wind it down again, the windlass to be operated by a small steam engine. A ride in the balloon will cost two francs, and admittance to the enclosure wherefrom the ascents take place, one franc. The chances of an accident by the rope giving away are freely discussed and would form, doubtless, an acceptable sensational side show to the satisfied Parisians.—Salem Register.

A Connecticut editor shows his familiarity with agriculture in the following: "Tis wheat to oat the progress of the approach of spring. Onion-der hills and meadows nature is bean arrayed in all herb beauty. The farmer manifests corn cider-apple zeal in his efforts to secure early field crops, while the gardens, with t-hay-radish-ional work, are being carefully attended to."

Professor—"What was the state of French affairs at this time?" X (very rapidly): "The majority ruled the minority, and consequently the minority was ruled by the majority, as it were!" Professor (sterely): "Sit down, sir!"—Yale Record.

"There is no truth in men," said a lady; "they are like musical instruments which sound a variety of tones." "In other words, madame," said a wit, "you believe that all men are lyres."

It is well enough to denounce tramps and say that they won't accept positions. Just offer one of them the presidency of a bank once. That would be a square test.—Puck.

Let's see: is this the day for the cable to declare "War Inevitable" or is it the "Peace Assured" day?—Norristown Herald.

"Yes," said a man as he bent his elbow to raise the twentieth glass of beer, "it is over-work that kills."

THE WORKINGMEN'S BEST PLAN.

At the Workingmen's meeting the other night, the old text "peaceably if we can, forcibly if we must" was endorsed, and the customary enthusiasm was shown over the advocacy of such measures. In the discussion of an enemy who is despised, men are apt to overrate their own strength; in the same way, the fostering of this violent plan may cause men to do great wrong. The government, both state and national, are bound to protect Quong Yee Wo & Co. in their contract. There is no law against the award of work to Chinamen, and there is no possibility of breaking the contract by force, unless the ranchers who made the award choose to suffer it. There is, then, but one plain consequence of a resort to force, and that would be extremely unfortunate. Laws can never be set at defiance unless they are generally obnoxious and excite unanimous and determined opposition. This never can be the case concerning laws which it is proposed to defy in breaking this award. The workingmen will save themselves the possibility of much trouble and the probability of defeat, if these facts are admitted.

The best plan to secure the contract for white labor and this is most desirable, will be found in the proposition of Mr. Jones, to see what can be done towards equalizing the bids. Every citizen of the town and county espouse the Workingmen's cause, in hoping that they may secure this work, and we doubt not that the parties who awarded the contract will meet the laborers half way. We hope that the workingmen will abandon the idea of violence, and go to work in the most effective way. Every citizen who can aid them should do it with a will.

INUENDOES.

It is true that handsome Boardman agreed to let the Republican Convention be held at Eureka, and it is also true (as far as we could learn) that any person Boardman advocates for official position is sure to be beaten. It is not true that M. C. Lake and Billy Thompson donated $200 each in coin and a ton of potatoes to the poor of Washoe county last winter, neither is it true that either of them would give a dollar to save the neck of their nearest and dearest relative, but it is true that Nat Holmes has been foolish enough to rent the Bowers mansion of M. C. Lake, expecting to make money by the operation.

The Carson Tribune publishes the above infamous squibs, and calls such matter news about Reno. We do not know that these men refused to subscribe, but Messrs. Boardman, Lake and Thompson are scoundrels and Nat Holmes a fool, according to the Tribune insinuations. Messrs. Thompson and Boardman voted against Carson in favor of Eureka as the location of the State Convention, and that is their sin. Mr. Lake had some business transactions with Mr. Parkinson, and that is his offense. Not one of these men but are known to be above and beyond the reach of such abuse, and we will, therefore, allow the Tribune to answer itself.

In the same issue of that paper we find the following editorial utterance:

We stated before that he who would try to injure man or woman by inuendo is more of a murderer at heart than he who takes his pistol in hand and deliberately blows an enemy's brains out.

A COMPLAINT.

The Silver State claims that Humboldt was unfairly treated by the Republican State Central Committee in the apportionment of delegates. That paper claims that upon the acknowledged basis of computation Humboldt was entitled to six delegates whereas she only got four. Mr. John H. Kinkade of that county is a candidate for the office of Governor, and hence the Humboldters want their full representation. We think, however, that the Silver State is wrong, from the fact that upon the basis name! Washoe's representation would have been one more.

The Mary Ann mine at Cherry Creek is reported a bonanza.

GREAT MEN DIFFER.

Parkie grows peevish over our statement that Judge Wright has no intention of becoming a candidate for re-election, and says:

This statement we deny as entirely unfounded, and feel warranted in saying that the Judge will not only be a candidate, but that he will carry the influence of the best men of Washoe county. We claim the ability to form an opinion of what we learn by actual observation as well as the erudite Alex. and still hold to our former statement, viz: that the report of the last grand jury is incorrect in nearly all its charges (or rather inuendoes) and state as our opinion that the "ring" is on the side of the leading men of the aforesaid jury.

We did not state anything of the kind in the first place, but merely gave the statement of Judge Wright, repeated to us by men whom we believe. The statement was made, according to our authorities, more than once, and we submit that it is possible for Judge W. to know something about his own business. We did not undertake to say what his intentions may be, we left that for Parkinson, supposing that he would announce them whenever he was instructed. Judge Wright will be a candidate, and no doubt he will be beaten by a handsome majority.

As to Mr. Parkinson's claim for ability, we admit it to be good. He is a very able man, also a profound and exhaustive reasoner. We are forced to acknowledge this, believing that people should know it. Any man who pits his judgement against thirty-four, is certainly conscious of a high order of ability. When he digests a matter in one day which close application barely enabled ten men to comprehend in three weeks, we admit him profound and exhaustive. When he asserts something which has neither foundation nor cause, calls it his opinion and expects it to have an effect, he must certainly calculate largely upon his ability.

The Deacon's imagination is a very fertile plant, and can be made to grow in any desirable direction. He will have ample room in his eye for the storage of fruit which ripens upon this Washoe county graft.

SURVEYOR-GENERAL.

It is reported that A. J. Hatch, of Reno, will be a candidate for Surveyor-General before the Republican Convention. Mr. Hatch has not informed us of such intention, but should it prove true we will take pleasure in guaranteeing him our hearty support. Mr. Hatch is an old resident, and a good man for the State and community in which he lives. He is the man above all others in either party for the position named. Hope he will advance his claims.

THAT COMMUNICATION.

We publish a communication to-day from Verdi, in regard to Deacon P's animus in opposing a grand jury's report of which he new nothing. We have always promised that these columns are open to any proper expression of opinion upon the part of taxpayers. We publish the communication because we know that it emanates from an honest man, one who is responsible and in earnest.

TOO TRUE.

It is true that the Nevada Tribune gives more news concerning Reno and its surrounding country than the two local papers of the town.—Parkie.

Jes' so. The news spoken of, however, is not true, and has no existence in fact—that is about the only trouble with it. Mr. Parkinson is growing in years, and honestly imagines that his opinions are matters of news. They are, instead, inventions. Wonderful affairs! Keely moters, so to speak.

Peace or War in Ten Days.

A London dispatch of May 16th, says: A diplomatist in high position told a correspondent to-day that he had heard Lord Salisbury say last night at dinner that peace or war would be settled within ten days, and he believed it would be war. An eminent Liberal declares emphatically that war must be the outcome of the present negotiations unless Russia consents to be humiliated. Beaconsfield is resolved to force the Czar morally on his knees by diplomatic action, if possible, if not, by battle. On the other hand, the Conservative defenders of Beaconsfield say that Beaconsfield does not mind how pleasantly the pill of retreat may be sugarcoated, and is anxious to make things pleasant for Russia, if the Czar or Bismarck find some way to bring the Treaty of San Stefano before a Congress as a whole. Inquiries in parliamentary and official circles to-day show that hopes of peace have once more disappeared.

INDIANS ON THE WAR-PATH.—The people of Owyhee county, Idaho, are alarmed at the Indian situation. The Boise Statesman of last Tuesday has the following:

Sheriff Hayes, of Owyhee county, informed the commanding officer of Fort Boise yesterday by telegraph that about one hundred Bannock Indians were camped near Silver City, and were, it was believed, endeavoring to induce the Plutes to join them to go on the war path. Major Collins has, we learn, telegraphed to Gen. Howard for instructions in the premises. There is no danger at or near Boise City, but citizens of Owyhee county may be in great peril, and it now behooves Governor Brayman, Commander-in-Chief of the Idaho militia, to call out at least one of his boasted militia regiments and placing himself at the head of his soldiers, march to Owyhee.

MURDER IN THE SECOND DEGREE.

The jury in the Harrington case retired at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon and brought in their verdict at 11 o'clock last night. They found James Harrington guilty of murder in the second degree. The law says that the sentence for murder in the second degree shall not be less than ten years in the State prison and may be for life. Harrington will receive sentence of the court next Saturday, the 25th inst.

PERSONAL.

S. P. Kelly, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, was in town yesterday afternoon and evening. Mr. E. J. Parkinson, local of the Carson Tribune, came down last evening to be present at the seminary musicale. Messrs. John W. Mackay, J. Seeley, D. Messick, and H. Mighels passed through town this morning, en route to their respective homes in Virginia and Carson. Mr. Geo. Webb, Sup't. of the State Orphan's Home, attended the musicale last evening.

THE MUSICAL.

The seminary musicale last evening passed off very pleasantly. The young ladies performed their selections with credit to themselves, and to the excellent and accomplished teacher, Miss Quaffie. The attendance was large and all were pleased with the evening's entertainment. Miss Quaffie is a most earnest and successful instructress, and the young misses show that they appreciate her most devoted efforts to advance their musical education.

YERRINGTON'S HENCHMAN.

Deacon P. and His Master.

Will the V. & T. R. R. and the Carson "Tribune" Keep Out of Washoe County Politics?

A Few Crumbs for Taxpayers.

Editor Gazette: Now that the campaign is upon us, it behooves the people to consider the necessities of the times, the remedies for existing evils, and above all, the proper action to be taken for the protection of the industrial classes.

There is a question constantly recurring year after year, as the Legislature meets, and just as often dismissed without consideration, through the powers that be. I refer to the regulation and reduction of freights and fares of the Virginia and Truckee railroad. It is a fact that the passenger and freight tariffs of this road, are fully as high and in some instances higher than the rates of the Central Pacific.

It is a fact that the owners and officers of the road, (or some of them,) form a close corporation, engaged in the lumber and wood business, and that the freight tariff of the railroad company is made to do service in adding to enormous fortunes already accumulated. In other words, no person or firm can enter the Virginia market with timber or wood, for the reason that the discriminating freight tariff shuts out outside dealers. Here is a wheel within a wheel; a corporation within a corporation, with a vengeance.

I can only allude to this swindle at the present time. At some future time I purpose inviting the attention of the people to other and more serious sins of this corporation, bearing heavily on their properties and privileges. I will also endeavor to show that this company, born of the people's favor and having its road built with the people's money, is not above the law, that the power which made can unmake.

I see by your paper of the 16th that Mr. Parkinson, of the Carson Tribune, and henchman of Yerrington & Co., is at his old tricks.

The old gentleman, big with mighty resolve to aid the cause of one of his dear people, the principal one, i. e. the aforesaid Yerrington, gets astride his family pass, provided through the considerate kindness of his indulgent master, and gallops down to Reno.

Blustering into the presence of some county officer, or perhaps one of his bondsmen, the venerable ground and lofty tumbler thus delivers his pregnant bosom: "Here! what in h--ll have you been doing down here! What does this grand jury report mean! Don't you know the railroad people don't like such a bloody row?" However, our most noble Duke knows that the jury must be wrong. "The grand jury is a relic of barbarous ages and should be abolished. Ergo, I will abolish, aye, utterly annihilate this grand jury. It don't make any difference that I don't know anything about the facts, my instructions are to knock the stuffing out of that report, and I am going to do it."

There, Mr. Editor, the foregoing, I think, if not literally true, fairly expresses the motive of the carboniferous old fossil, who assumes to have charge of the affairs of three counties, and arrogates to himself the authority to revise the action of a Washoe county grand jury.

Do not overdo this thing, Gentlemen of the Lick-spittle Brigade. Turn your noses to the windward and scent the danger in the air. The people are rising. A. MAY. Verdi, May 17th.

MILLING APPARATUS.—The Kimble quartz grinding mill and amalgamating apparatus will shortly be put in operation at the English mill. This excellent invention has not been perfected, but has already shown its valuable adaptation to the work which it is designed to perform. There is no longer a question as to its success, and several improvements are yet to be added to it before it shall accomplish what its inventor designs.

"CELEBRATED CASE."—Glance at the advertisement of the Union Square troupe, and do not fail to attend their performance next Wednesday evening at Smith's Academy of Music. We do not hesitate to pronounce it the best troupe that has ever been in Reno. More anon.

The Arlington Nurseries

A Churchill county correspondent says he is "sorry to say that there is one man in Nevada who can get away with even the Churchill Democracy. That man is the Arlington Avenue nursery agent. He sold, it is stated, 10,000 fruit trees here last fall, representing that they were Nevada trees and that if well cared for they were sure to grow. The writer bought 500 and did with them as directed, taking all possible care of them and to-day perhaps there are fifty trees alive. This is about an average of the entire sale. People here think that if those trees grew in Nevada it was while in transit from the nurseries of Pennsylvania. Mr. Chase will undoubtedly meet with considerable difficulty in collecting his dues here." As an offset we have only to quote from one of the numerous private letters received by Mr. Chapin. This morning a letter from Mr. C. A. Richards, of Austin, informs Mr. C. that he is delighted with the growth of his trees, and saying, also, that Hon. Geo. Watt, ex-Senator from Lander and a friend of Mr. Richards, informed him that one thousand dollars would not buy his two hundred-dollar purchase of trees made last fall.

The Churchill writer is evidently incensed at something outside of the trees, and takes a questionable method of assault. Every tree which Mr. Chapin sold in Churchill was grown in Washoe county. He has come here to do the nursery business of this section and enjoys the confidence of business men. He has invested thousands of dollars in the improvement of his land, and would certainly know that such deception would be suicidal. We do not hesitate to endorse Mr. Chapin's representations in every way, and can find twenty substantial citizens to guarantee every representation which he makes.

Mr. Chapin will sell many thousand trees yet in Churchill as well as the other counties of this State, and the gentleman who signs himself "Pocus" need have no fear of being hounded by Chapin or his agents.

A good word for Pyramid.

Ex-Governor Blaisdel and Mr. Clark returned yesterday evening from a two days visit and inspection of the mines in Pyramid district. Both gentlemen speak very highly of the mining camp. Mr. Blaisdel who has visited perhaps every mining camp in the State and many in California, says that he likes the formation particularly in the Jones & Kinkead mine, and is of the opinion that this mine will develop into a very rich claim. He was most agreeably surprised over its prospects, and is satisfied that the mining world will yet hear well founded, favorable reports of this mine, and very probably others in that district. It is indeed gratifying and encouraging, to our citizens, and particularly those directly interested in the above mining district, to hear such a very favorable opinion from a man who knows more about the mines of this State, than any other man in Nevada.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.—A very pleasant company of Reno young folks met last evening at the residence of Smith Hill, Esq. The occasion was the sixteenth birthday of his daughter, Miss Jennie Hill. The house was comfortably filled with young people who indulged in dancing and other recreations usual at such social gatherings, and we are assured that they had a jolly time. The party broke up about half-past 12 p. m. and the youthful guests after wishing their fair young hostess many happy returns, adjourned to their respective homes.

NEWSPAPER TOLIAL.—We find upon our work bench the following: "You're another. E. J. PARKINSON."

I concur: S. P. KELLEY." To which particular other do you Kearneyites refer! And why don't you call us something definite! In view of the fact that Emperor William has been shot at, we don't like these dark threats. If anything of the kind occurs again, the streets of Carson shall be made gory.

LEASED.—The Jones & Kinkead mining company have leased the English mill for a term of three months, with the privilege of a six months lease. The owners of this mine mean business. They have a good mine, and propose it shall so appear.

The best of drugs and medicines daily dispensed at the lowest prices. Satisfaction given to all. QUEEN'S DRUG STORE, Opera House, Virginia street, Reno. 5-2-1f.

JUST THE THING.—A neatly dressed man can take some comfort with himself and at the same time be favorably regarded by his friends. It is true economy to buy good clothing, and of a style in conformity with the prevailing patterns. The next question is, where shall one get, during these hard times, a good article of underwear, business or dress suit, which gives satisfaction in price and quality of goods? Messrs. Cohen & Isaac, at the Branch White House, on Commercial Row, next door to the postoffice, is your place, gentlemen. They have all the latest styles of men's and boy's clothing, and at all prices and sizes. Their stock is both large and complete. A man can go into their store and get a full outfit, hat, suit of outer and underwear, and boots or shoes as he may prefer. These gentlemen have just received a full stock of spring and summer clothing, and defy competition in their selling prices, as well as in the quality of goods which they sell. 4-28-1f.

MARKET REPORT.

Trade in the San Francisco market is not as good as last week, and many of the leading commodities drag on the market. A prominent reason for the depression in business circles which prevails throughout the country is the uncertainty concerning the stability of values. It is this that keeps manufacturers in check, stays property-owners from improving and paralyzes the industries of the country. Capitalists want to be reasonably sure that they will at least get a new dollar back for the old one put out, but before they are to venture in new and untried fields. All these things curtail the demand for labor, and with idle men and women there is of course less ability to purchase supplies.

In our home market trade is very fair, and on the books is improving. The fruit, grain and hay crop will be much larger this year than last, if the weather does not become fearfully cold near the close of the present month.

Mining stocks are down lower than last week, which of course has a depressing effect on money and retards its circulation.
